Subject: School Bus Crash

On Tuesday, October 14, 2025, at approximately 7:38 a.m., the Robbinsville Police Department responded to multiple 911 calls reporting a school bus crash on Hankins Road.

Upon arrival, officers located a school bus transporting students to Pond Road Middle School that left the roadway and collided with a tree. The school bus was traveling Eastbound on Hankins Road in the area of #125 Hankins Road prior to the crash.

The driver and ten (10) students on board were immediately assessed at the scene by emergency medical personnel. The driver of the bus was transported to Capital Health Regional Medical Center, and one student passenger was transported to Princeton Medical Center. At this time, there are no life-threatening injuries reported. Families of the students involved have been notified directly by school officials.

The motor vehicle crash is currently under investigation by Patrolman Colin Lockwood of the Robbinsville Police Department.
