FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: November 3, 2025

Subject: Suspect arrested in Bias Incident

ROBBINSVILLE, NJ – On Saturday, November 1, 2025, at approximately 7:58 p.m., the Robbinsville Township Police Department received multiple 911 calls reporting that a heavyset black male, dressed in all black clothing and wearing a black face mask with a white skull design, had thrown a rock through the front door and side window of Taco Rito, located at 2346 Route 33, Suite 101, Robbinsville, NJ.

Responding officers arrived on scene and spoke with witnesses who provided descriptions of the suspect. Officers canvassed the surrounding area and deployed our Drone in an effort to locate the individual but were initially unsuccessful.

At approximately 9:32 p.m., a RTPD Communications Officer monitoring Township traffic cameras observed a person matching the suspect's description walking in the area of Route 33 and North Commerce Square. Patrol units immediately responded and located the suspect.

The suspect, identified as Hassan K. Hill, 26, was detained without incident. During questioning, the suspect admitted to throwing the rock and made statements indicating bias motivation. Hill was placed under arrest and transported to the Robbinsville Police Headquarters for processing.

The Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Bias Crime Unit was notified, and a warrant complaint was authorized. Hill was subsequently transported to the Mercer County Correctional Facility pending a court appearance.

The Robbinsville Township Police Department is committed to protecting our community, fostering trust, and preventing bias incidents of any kind. We encourage anyone who witnesses or experiences a potential bias-related incident to contact our department immediately.
